NOTES TO THE INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)
(Unaudited – Prepared by Management)
NINE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED MARCH 31, 2010

1. INCORPORATION AND CONTINUANCE OF OPERATIONS

China Select Capital Partners Corp. (formerly Orient Venture Capital II Inc) (the “Company”) was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) on September 12, 2007 and is classified as a Capital Pool Company as defined in the TSX Venture Exchange (“TSX-V”) Policy 2.4. The principal business of the Company is the identification and evaluation of assets or a business and once identified or evaluated, to negotiate an acquisition of or participation in a business subject to receipt of shareholder approval, if required, and acceptance by regulatory authorities.

These unaudited interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles (“Canadian GAAP”) for interim financial statements with assumption that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business rather than through a process of forced liquidation.

The Company’s continuing operations as intended are dependent upon its ability to identify, evaluate and negotiate an acquisition of, a participation in or an interest in properties, assets or business. Such an acquisition will be subject to shareholders’ approval. In order to continue as a going concern and meet its corporate objectives, the Company will require additional financing through debt or equity issuance or other available mean. There is no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain adequate financing in the future or that such financing will be on terms advantageous to the Company.

These interim financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue in existence.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) based on information available at the time and best judgments of the management.

a) Estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of these financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Items requiring management to make estimates include stock-based compensation and recoverability of future income tax assets. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

b) Income taxes

Future income taxes relate to the expected future tax consequences of differences between the carrying amount of balance sheet items and their corresponding tax values. Future tax assets and liabilities are recognized only to the extent that, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that the future income tax assets will be realized. Future income tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates at the date of enactment or substantive enactment.

(Unaudited – Prepared by Management)
NINE-MONTH PERIOD ENDED MARCH 31, 2010

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

c) Loss per share

Basic loss per share is computed by dividing the net loss for the period by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. To compute diluted loss per share, adjustments are made to common shares outstanding. The weighted average number of common shares outstanding is adjusted to include the number of additional common shares that would be outstanding if, at the beginning of the period or at time of issuance, if later, all dilutive instruments were exercised. Dilutive instruments which could potentially dilute earnings in the future, but weren't included as they would be anti-dilutive, include stock options and warrants.

d) Stock-based compensation

The fair value of stock options granted is determined using the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model and is expensed over the period of vesting. Any consideration paid on the exercise of stock options is credited to capital stock and appropriate amount will be reallocated from Contributed Surplus to Share Capital.

e) Share issue costs

Cost directly identifiable with the raising of capital will be charged against the related capital stock. Costs related to shares not yet issued are recorded as deferred financing costs. These costs will be deferred until the issuance of the shares to which the costs relate, at which time the costs will be charged against the related capital stock or charged to operations if the shares are not issued.

f) Foreign currency translation

The Company maintains its accounting records in Canadian dollars. At the transaction date, transactions completed in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars by the use of the exchange rate in effect at that date. Revenues and expenses are translated at the average exchange rate for the year. At the year end, monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollars at the year-end exchange rates. Non-monetary assets and liabilities are translated using historical exchange rates. Exchange gains and losses on translation are included in operations.

g) Financial Instruments

The Company has classified its cash as held-for-trading and is measured at fair value. Receivables are classified as loans and receivables. Accounts payables, accrued liabilities and short-term loan are classified as other liabilities and are measured at amortized cost.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

h) Capital Disclosure

The standard requires disclosure of the Company's objective, policies, and processes for managing capital; quantitative data about what the Company regards as capital; whether the Company has complied with any capital requirements; and, if the Company has not complied, the consequences of such non-compliance. These disclosures are included in Note 4 to these financial statements.

i) International Financial Reporting Standards and Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2006, CICA Accounting Standards Board ("AcSB") adopted a strategic plan for the direction of accounting standards in Canada. As part of that plan, accounting standards in Canada for public companies are expected to converge with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") by the end of fiscal year of 2011. The Company finished its diagnostic phase in this quarter and did not identify significant impact of conversion to IFRS on the financial statements. The Company will prepare a conversion plan in the fourth quarter of this fiscal year and thereafter begin execution to this plan.

In January 2009, the CICA issued Section 1582, Business Combinations, which replaces former guidance on business combinations. Section 1582 establishes principles and requirements of the acquisition method for business combination and related disclosures. The Section applies prospectively to business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the beginning of the first annual reporting period beginning on or after January 2011 with earlier adoption permitted. The Corporation is currently evaluating the impact of this standard on the financial statements.

In January 2009, the CICA issued Section 1601, Consolidated Financial Statements, and 1602, Non-controlling interests, which replaces existing guidance. Section 1602 provides guidance on accounting for a non-controlling interest in a subsidiary in consolidated financial statements subsequent to a business combination. These standards are effective on or after the beginning of the first annual reporting period on or after January 2011 with earlier adoption permitted. The Corporation is currently evaluating the impact of this standard on the financial statements.

3. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK

a) Financial Instruments

As of March 31, 2010, the Company's financial instruments consist of cash, deposits, accounts payable, and convertible loan. The fair values of these financial instruments approximate their carrying values because of their current nature.

b) Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash. To minimize the credit risk the Company places these instruments with a high credit quality financial institution.

c) Liquidity Risk

The Company's continuance of operations will be required to raise more funding to meet its general and administrative expenditures.

d) Foreign Exchange Risk

The Company does not have significant foreign exchange risk as its administrative operations are all located in Canada.

e) Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate as a result of changes in market interest rates. The Company's exposure relates to its ability to earn short term interest on cash at variable rates. The Company has no long-term debt and therefore is not affected by changes in long-term interest rates. With respect to interest rate risk management, the Company is at risk to open market fluctuation in interest rates.

4. CAPITAL DISCLOSURE

The Company manages its capital in a manner consistent with the risk characteristics of the assets it holds. All sources of financing are analyzed by management and approved by the board of directors. To maintain or adjust its capital structure, the Company may issue new shares, issue new debts, acquire or dispose assets or adjust the amount of cash.

The Company's objectives when managing capital are:

- a) to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern;
- b) to facilitate the completion of the Qualifying Transaction.

The Company is meeting its objective of managing capital through its detailed review and performance of due diligence on all potential acquisitions, preparing short-term and long-term cash flow analysis to ensure an adequate amount of liquidity and monthly review of financial results.

The Company is raising equity capital by private placements in this three-month period ended on March 31, 2010. The private placements are closed on April 8, 2010. Capital of the Company is comprised of shareholders' equity and convertible short-term loan.

Under the plan, an option's maximum term is five years from the grant date. Options under this plan will vest upon issuance.

7. STOCK OPTIONS (CONT'D)

b) Stock-based compensation

The Company recorded stock-based compensation costs of $49,372 for year ended June 30 2008 and has not recorded stock-based compensation cost since then. The offsetting amount is recorded as contributed surplus on the balance sheet [Note 6].

The fair value of all options granted was estimated using the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model with the following weighted average assumptions:

Risk-free interest rate	4.2%
Expected life of options	5 years
Annualized volatility	135%

Option pricing models require the use of highly subjective estimates and assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Changes in the underlying assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimates and, therefore, in management's opinion existing models do not necessarily provide reliable measure of the fair value of the Company's stock options.

8. WARRANTS

On March 5, 2008, the Company granted 300,000 non-transferable agents warrants, entitling the agent to purchase 300,000 common shares at a price of $0.20 per common share. For the nine month period ended on March 31, 2010, the Company paid office assistant service charges to a company controlled by a director in the amount of $3,600 (2009 - $1,600).

The transactions with related parties are in the normal course of operations and have been measured at the exchange amount, which is the amount of consideration established and agreed by the related parties.

There were no standard compensation arrangements, or other arrangements in addition to or in lieu of standard arrangements, under which the directors of the Company were compensated for service in their capacity as directors (including any additional amounts payable for committee participation or special assignments), or for services as consultants or experts.
