

China Select Capital Partners (CH:TSXV) to Open Market at Toronto Stock Exchange

VANCOUVER, April 19th, 2010 – China Select Capital Partners Corp. (“China Select”) (TSX-V:CH), a Canada-based asset and investment management firm will visit the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) on Friday, April 23, 2010 to celebrate the listing and trading of China Select shares. Common shares of China Select commenced trading on the TSX Venture Exchange on April 22, 2010 under the ticker symbol “CH.”

“Today is a significant day in the new stage of our firm’s development,” said Joseph Fodor, Chief Executive Officer of China Select. “We are one of the first movers in our nascent industry and eager to capitalize on the growing China private equity market through facilitating foreign investment in China and managing Renminbi-denominated funds.”

The ceremony will take place at the TMX Broadcast Centre in Toronto. Mr. Fodor will open the market at 9:30 A.M. EST, and along with other China Select representatives, will be available for interviews following the ceremony.
